

OVERVIEW

A gateway for commerce, trade and opportunity, the World Trade Center Seattle (WTCSE) is a gathering place that provides access, collaboration and networking for business leaders throughout the region. WTCSE is part of the World Trade Center Association that provides members with access to the world's largest international business association, with more than 330 World Trade Centers in 90 countries with more than 1.5 million member companies.

WTCSE serves as a tribute to the importance of international trade in the Pacific Northwest, providing a place where leaders can come together to share ideas and strengthen their business connections. It also offers a complete range of business services, unique programming available year around, and four full-service boardrooms. WTCSE has an elegant dining room and outdoor terrace offering extraordinary views of Elliott Bay and the Olympic Mountains. WTCSE is owned by the Port of Seattle and operated by Columbia Hospitality.

LOCATION

Centrally located on Seattle's waterfront, WTCSE is within walking distance of water-view hotels and restaurants, the world-famous Pike Place Market, and the city's thriving retail district. Parking is available at World Trade Center Seattle Building West, with valet parking services available upon request.
